Introductory Japanese A: Course Syllabus
(Formerly known by Elementary Japanese A)

I. Course Description and Objectives
Introductory Japanese A is an introduction to Japanese language and culture, and it is designed for students who have had little or no experience learning Japanese. The goal of this course is to develop four basic skills (i.e., speaking, listening, reading, and writing) in modern Japanese with an emphasis on grammatical accuracy and socially appropriate language use. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to carry on basic daily conversations such as self-introduction, inquiry of time, and explanation of travel plans, and to develop the ability to read and write hiragana* as well as to read katakana*.

*written scripts

This course covers the first half of First Year Japanese I (C1101/F1101; 5pts.), while the continuing course (Introductory Japanese B in Fall) covers the second half. Those who successfully completed Introductory Japanese B will continue to take First Year Japanese II in Spring. For more information, visit the website of Japanese Language Program: http://www.columbia.edu/cu/ealac/japanese/

III. Textbook and Other Materials

1. Main Text I or Honsatsu (pink book): LL 1-25 (LL 1-8 will be covered in this course.)
   - It contains dialogues, sentence patterns, and glossary. It is also used for drill exercises at home.

2. Translation & Grammatical Notes I or Bunpō Kaisetsu (yellow book)
   - It contains vocabulary lists, English translations, and grammar explanations.
   - The Romanized version of Lessons 1-4 (both Main Text and Grammar Notes) is available in Supplementary Materials.

3. Written Assignment Book or Hyōjun Mondai Shū (thin pink book)

4. Supplementary Materials (SM)
   - Log onto CourseWorks >> W1001 Elementary Japanese A >> Files & Resources >> Supplementary Materials

5. Audio materials (available in CourseWorks) contain:
   - Audio files for language lab assignments
   - Drill exercises in Main Text (Renshū B &C). Open a file "Drills.L1-14.htm" to read instructions (Glossary of LL1-14 vocabulary included)
   - Each lesson's vocabulary and dialogue
   - Log onto CourseWorks >> W1001 Elementary Japanese A >> Home

6. Others: syllabus and other handouts
IV. Study Hours
You are expected to study for about 1 to 1.5 HOURS every day outside of class. This self-study includes but is not limited to reviewing class materials, preparing for the next class (e.g., memorizing new vocabulary and reading new Grammar Notes), and doing homework as well as drill exercises in Main Text.

V. Course Policies
- If you are unable to attend the class for legitimate reasons, submit a written explanation (such as a doctor's note). Without proof, you will receive 0 for both attendance and quiz.
- If you are absent from the class, it is your responsibility to contact the instructor to find out about any changes to course schedule.
- If you are absent for no compelling reasons more than twice, one percent will be deducted from your final grade each time you are absent. For example, if you have missed class five times, 3% will be deducted from your final grade, which could lower your final grade by as much as one letter grade.
- Absence from class for a week or more without contacting the instructor will be regarded as unofficial withdrawal from the course.
- No make-up quizzes will be administered. If you are late for a quiz, you will receive 0.
- Homework and lab assignments should be submitted on time. We will accept one late submission per semester without penalty. After that, no credit will be given for late submission. Even if you are late, however, you are still encouraged to submit your assignments so as to get feedback and comments from your instructor.
- If you failed to submit your assignments on time due to an emergency or for a legitimate reason, you must submit written proof.
- The date of Final Examination will be announced later. The date may be DIFFERENT from the listing on the university website. Don’t book your flight until the JAPANESE PROGRAM announces the final exam day! Your flight schedule or travel schedule is not a legitimate reason to reschedule your final exam.

We are strict with these policies because learning a foreign language requires constant practice and commitment. Having said that, learning Japanese is fun and rewarding. If you have any concerns or questions, come to see us!

Please note that registration (R) credit, auditing, or a PASS/FAIL grade is NOT allowed.

VI. Language Laboratory Assignments
Language laboratory assignments are listening homework. You will not go to a lab. Instead, you will do listening exercises on your own and submit worksheets to the instructor.

Audio files are available on the web (Click the first link on CourseWorks), while worksheets can be found in Supplementary Materials (Look for a folder entitled “E. Language Lab pp.47-101”).

VIII. EALAC Statement on Academic Integrity for Course Syllabi*

Students are expected to do their own work on all tests and assignments for this class and act in accordance with the Faculty Statement on Academic Integrity (http://www.college.columbia.edu/faculty/resourcesforinstructors/academicintegrity/statement) and Honor Code (http://www.college.columbia.edu/ccschonorcode) established by the students of Columbia College and the School of General Studies. Because any academic integrity violation undermines our intellectual community, students found to have cheated, plagiarized, or committed any other act of academic dishonesty can expect to fail the class and may be referred to the Dean’s Discipline process.

It is students’ responsibility to ensure their work maintains the standards expected and should you have any questions or concerns regarding your work, you can:

a) Talk with your TA
b) Ask the instructor
c) Refer to the Columbia University Undergraduate Guide to Academic Integrity, which includes information on what constitutes a violation of academic integrity and specific guidance on how to cite sources: http://www.college.columbia.edu/academics/academicintegrity.

*Japanese Program will follow the EALAC Academic Integrity Statement
